

PETITION GUIDELINES

1. The burden of proof is on you, the petitioner. Petitions are not automatically approved but are considered on their merit as exceptions.
2. You are responsible for stating clearly, in writing, the purpose of the petition and for giving clear and credible reasons in support of the request. Any later appeal is limited to the materials you originally presented for approval.

Additional endorsements are not required if you are requesting a substitution or waiver of a course that is specifically required for your major.

5. When you are petitioning to enroll in Excess Hours, you must include a proposed schedule for the term in which excess hours are requested. Include course numbers, titles and credit hours; and indicate the total number of hours requested for each term.
