

NOTICE - GRE Revised General Test – IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Graduate program applicants may register for either the current GRE General Test, which will be administered through July, or the upcoming GRE revised General Test, via the ETS website at: <http://www.ets.org/>.

Which GRE test is best for applicants to take?

- If applicants need their GRE scores before November, they must take the current GRE General Test before August to get their scores in time.
- If applicants don't need their scores until after November, they can take the GRE revised General Test and experience the new, test-taker friendly design and the opportunity to save 50% on their test fee when they test between August 1 and September 30, 2011.
- If applicants are registering to take the GRE revised General Test between August and November, direct them to the special score reporting schedule (below), which details when they can expect their scores.

NOTE: Applicants who register to take the test between August 1 and September 30, 2011 will save 50% on their test fee; their scores will be sent by mid-November.

Score Reporting Schedule

If you take the computer-based GRE® revised General Test between August and November, score reports will be issued according to the schedule below.

Computer-based revised General Test Dates	Approximate Score Report Mailing Dates and View Scores Online Dates
August 1, 2011 – September 8, 2011	November 8, 2011
September 9, 2011 – October 2, 2011	November 10, 2011
October 3, 2011 – October 15, 2011	November 17, 2011
October 16, 2011 – November 18, 2011	December 1, 2011
November 19, 2011 – November 28, 2011	December 8, 2011
November 29, 2011 or later	10 – 15 days after the test date

Score reporting for the computer-based test will return to the regular reporting period of 10 to 15 days for test administrations on and after November 29, 2011. The paper-based test will continue to be sent within six weeks after you take the test. Scores for both tests can also be viewed online or received via mail or by phone.