

Kim Baker, Ph.D., CCC-SLP

“Perception of Spoken Emotion in Children with Asperger’s and Autism”, American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Annual Meeting October
18-23, 2005, Toronto, CA.

“Metaphonological Remediation of Severe Expressive Phonological Disorders”, poster accepted at ASHA, November, 2005.

“Think about it! Metaphonology: a great way to increase speech intelligibility” lecture presented to public school speech pathologists in Western Arkansas, August 2005.

“Cerebral Lateralization of Affective Valence by Children in the Autism Spectrum” poster presented at LA Tech University Spring Conference, March 2005.

“Laterality of Spoken Emotion by Adult Women”, poster presented at South Carolina Speech and Hearing Association Convention, February, 2005.

“Perception of Affective Prosody in Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders,” poster presented at ASHA, November, 2004.