WHO CAN ATTEND?
The clinic is for any students in kindergarten to sixth grade. We will be breaking the participants up into several groups based on their age for their performances at the Regal Blues showcase that evening.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?
Spend the afternoon with the Louisiana Tech Cheerleaders. They will be teaching you a routine to perform at the Regal Blues showcase that evening. You will also get a chance to learn some of the cheers that the Tech Cheerleaders use at football and basketball games.

WHAT IS THE DAY LIKE?
Check-in will begin at 1:30 p.m., and the clinic will start at 2 p.m. It will end at 4 p.m. Parents are welcome to stay and watch, or come back to pick their child up at 4 p.m. We will give you information about the showcase performance when you drop your child off at 1:30 p.m. You will be given three tickets to the showcase so that you and your child can get in for free that evening. Additional tickets can be purchased at the door for $2.

WHERE IS THE CLINIC?
The clinic will be held in the red gym of the Lambright Intramural Center on Louisiana Tech’s Campus. This building is located on Tech Drive right beside the Marbury Alumni Center. Parking is available in back of the building off of Bearcat Drive.

WHAT’S THE COST?
The cost for the clinic is $25 per child. Your child will receive a 2010 Tech cheerleading poster and three tickets to the Regal Blues showcase. Champ will also be available for pictures from 1:30 to 2 p.m., so bring your camera! If you would like to pay with a check, please make it payable to La. Tech Foundation.

HOW DO YOU REGISTER?
Fill out the registration form and mail it along with your payment to Jenny Bell at P.O. Box 8578, Ruston, La. 71272. You can also drop applications off at the Student Activities Office in Tolliver Hall or bring them with you on the day of the clinic. If you have any questions, e-mail Jenny Bell at jquinn@latech.edu.
