

THE MAYA AND THE WORLD : INTERDISCIPLINARY INQUIRY IN THE LIBERAL ARTS

Sponsored by: Louisiana Board of Regents Undergraduate Enhancement Grant
Louisiana Tech University's College of Liberal Arts, Department of History,
Department of Social Sciences, School of Literature and Language

Fall Quarter 2009

Robert M. Carmack, Professor Emeritus, University of Albany, Albany, New York

Thur, Oct 8th at Lincoln Parish Library: "Conducting Anthropological Research in a K'iche'-Mayan Community of Guatemala"

Fri, Oct 9th, 11 am, Wyly Auditorium, LA Tech: "Maya Historiography: The K'iche'-Mayan Case of Guatemala".

Thomas H. Guderjan, President, Maya Research Program, Fort Worth, Texas
Assistant Professor, Anthropology, University of Texas at Tyler

Thur, Oct 15th at Lincoln Parish Library: "The End of The World as They Knew It! What we really know and don't know about the collapse of the ancient Maya Civilization."

Fri, Oct 16th, 9:30 am, Wyly Auditorium, LA Tech: "Understanding the Ancient Past at Blue Creek, Belize"

Grace Lloyd Boscopé, Project Director, Maya Research Program, Forth Worth, Texas

Thur, Oct 22nd at Lincoln Parish Library: "Contemporary Recycling: Uses of Ancient Tools by Modern Maya."

Fri, Oct 23rd, 9:30 am, Wyly Auditorium, LA Tech: "Threads of the Past Enrich the Present: The Maya Then and Now."

Monica Bontty, University of Louisiana at Monroe, Monroe, Louisiana

Thur, Oct 29th at Lincoln Parish Library: "Years Mayan and Hours: The Concept of Time in Ancient Maya and Egyptian Societies,"

Thur, Oct 29th, 9:30 am, Wyly Auditorium, LA Tech: "The Notion of Time in Egyptian and Mayan Society"

W. George Lovell, Queens, University, Kingston, Ontario

Thur, Nov 5th at Lincoln Parish Library: "At Peace in the Corn: A Story of Civil War and It's Aftermath in Guatemala"

Fri, Nov 6th, 11 am, Wyly Auditorium, LA Tech: "Surviving Conquest: Geography, Colonialism, and Maya Peoples in Guatemala."