Then type the name of a literary author, last name first, in to the text area beside Browse on, for example Williams Tennessee, then click on the Subject button.

Subject headings and their subdivisions are listed alphabetically under Catalog Browse by Subject. Books about a literary author are classified by a subject category identified by the author's name and life dates. Books of literary criticism about the author's works are commonly assigned to the subdivision for Criticism and Interpretation.

Click on Williams Tennessee, 1911-1983--Criticism and Interpretation, then click on a title for Item Details about the Library's copy of the book, its location and status. If the location is Main Collection - 5th thru 9th Floors, click on the link to the Floor Directory to determine on which floor the book is shelved by its call number.

How can you find out whether or where a book addresses the literary work, character or theme of interest to you? Examine its table of contents at the front and its index at the back.

Click Go Back on the Catalog's toolbar to return to the Catalog Browse by Subject listings, then click on Williams Tennessee, 1911-1983--Criticism and Interpretation--History. Click on the link to the electronic version of Philip C. Kolin's book, Tennessee Williams: a guide to research and performance. This is an electronic book. It is not shelved by its call number. Off-campus access to it is restricted to Louisiana Tech students and staff. To display this book online, one page at a time, click on the Complete Record of Item Details, scroll down, and click on the long URL beside the HTTP prompt.

To Find Articles

From the Prescott Memorial Library home page <<http://www.latech.edu/library>>, click on the Articles tab under Search For, then on the link to the Subject List. Click on Liberal Arts, on Literature, then on MLA International Bibliography. Under EBSCOhost's search box, click on Advanced Search.

To focus the search further, add a character's name, a theme, or other words or phrases in the third box. Then click on the Search button.

The Search Results list identifies articles, as well as some books and perhaps dissertations, matching your criteria. Each listing provides an article's title, the author's name, the title of the journal or other publication in which it was published, the volume and/or issue number, date of publication, and pages. Listings are arranged in chronological order by date of publication, the latest first, in pages of ten. Find the first fifty listings on Page: 1 2 3 4 5 then click Next for page 6 and beyond, if available, or Previous to display prior pages. Click on the article title for General Subject Areas and additional Subject Terms describing the article. Consider adding these terms, as SU Subjects-All, to refine your search. To limit the search to Peer Reviewed publications, by Publication Date, or by Source Types, use the menus under Refine Results on the left sidebar.

To display full text of an article, if available from EBSCO, click on either  HTML Full Text or  PDF Full Text. To get the article by other means available to Louisiana Tech students and staff either online or in the cataloged collection, click on  Full Text Finder.

To find whether or where Louisiana Tech may have an item designated as a  Book, rather than as an  Academic Journal, see the directions above To Search for a Book.

To Find Biographies of Literary Authors

From the Prescott Memorial Library home page <<http://www.latech.edu/library>>, click on the Articles tab under Search For, then on the link to the Subject List. Click on Liberal Arts, on Literature, then on Literature Resource Center. (Note: Scribner's Writers Series and Twayne's Author Series are subsets of this archive.)

On the Literature Resource Center's blue toolbar, click on the Gale Literary Index. Click on Author Search. Enter the name of an author and click on the Search button. Then click on the link for the author's name, under Document Title, to display listings by title and volume of all the Gale series that include an entry on this author. Many of these resources are biographical dictionaries. To find out whether or where Prescott Memorial Library has particular titles and volumes, search its catalog. See the directions above To Search for a Book.

Some of these biographical resources are accessible online from the Literature Resource Center. Close or minimize the window opened for the Literary Index. On the Literature Resource Center's blue toolbar, click on Advanced Search. Type a literary author's name into the text box beside Person-By or About and click on the Search button. Then click on the Biographies tab for references to biographies with links to full text.
