Commencement Speakers

BILL BAILEY
CEO, Radiance Technologies

Bill Bailey, Jr. (Electrical Engineering, '87) is Louisiana Tech's 2020 Distinguished Alumnus of the College of Engineering and Science. He serves on Tech's COES Foundation Board and on the COES Nanosystems Engineering Advisory Board.

Today, Bailey is Chief Executive Officer of Radiance Technologies. As CEO, he sets strategic direction for Radiance, a business with core competencies in developing advanced technologies, integrating systems, performing technical intelligence, and providing engineering service to the Department of Defense, armed services, intelligence agencies, and other US Government agencies.

Bailey has 40-plus years of technical and military experience supporting various intelligence, research, information operations, electronic warfare, and cyber-related projects.

DR. BOB CUNNINGHAM
CEO, The Heritage Group

Dr. Bob Cunningham (Business Administration, '73; MBA, '85; DBA, '96) is Louisiana Tech's 2020 Distinguished Alumnus of the College of Business. Last year he joined Tech's College of Business as Executive in Residence; as a three-time College of Business alumnus, he has a unique connection to the University and is invested in the success of its students.

Cunningham currently serves as CEO of the Heritage Group, a consulting firm specializing in the higher education sector, and the Cunningham Group, a fraud investigation company. His entrepreneurial spirit and love of accounting have been woven throughout his career — from starting his own delivery business immediately after college and later an accounting practice, to serving as an instructor at both Tech and Grambling State University.

In addition to his many interests and responsibilities, Cunningham has served as the evangelist for Queensborough Church of Christ in Shreveport since 1984.

DR. JEAN HALL
Vice President Emeritus, Louisiana Tech University

Dr. Jean Hall (Elementary-Secondary Education, '68, Elementary Education, '72) is Louisiana Tech's 2020 Distinguished Alumnus of the College of Education.

He served as Tech's Vice President for Student Affairs and University Advancement from 1988-2002. He served as Dean of Student Life and Director of Elementary Programs for the Lincoln Parish School Board prior to becoming a Vice President at Tech.

The long-time North Louisiana educator served as head golf coach at Ruston High and assisted then-Ruston High head boys' basketball coach Leon Barmore, a Louisiana Tech and Louisiana Sports Hall of Famer, in the 1970s when he also taught American History for RHS. A scratch golfer, Hall twice served as head coach of Tech's golf team.

BOSTON SCOTT
Professional Football Player, Philadelphia Eagles

Boston Scott (Kinesiology and Health Promotion, '17) is Louisiana Tech's 2020 Young Alumnus of the Year. Fans of Tech Football will remember him as a running back for the Bulldogs from 2014-17.

From Zachary, Scott came to Ruston with no scholarship, raw talent, and a dream. He earned the first, refined the second, and fulfilled the third through four years of Bulldog football and through one late-April Saturday afternoon in 2018 when the senior was selected in the sixth round by New Orleans, the 201st overall pick in the NFL Draft. From there, he was picked up by Philadelphia off the Saints' practice squad and, this past October, made the game-winning touchdown catch in a 22-21 win against the New York Giants.

JEREMY TINNERELLO
CEO, Glenwood Regional Medical Center

Jeremy M. Tinnerello (Nursing, '98) is Louisiana Tech's 2020 Distinguished Alumnus of the College of Applied and Natural Sciences. He has been Chief Executive Officer for Glenwood Regional Medical Center in his hometown of West Monroe since 2017.

Tinnerello had already been a long-standing member of the Glenwood Regional Medical Center administrative team as Director of Nursing, Chief Nursing Officer, and Chief Operating Officer. His extensive background in healthcare began in 1993 when he was first employed by Glenwood as an orderly.

Upon completion of his nursing degree at Tech, he continued his career as a nurse in the Emergency Department for 15 years and served as director of Glenwood's Disaster Management Program for Hurricane Katrina and its recovery. He then took over directorship of multiple departments before completing master's degrees in Nursing and Health Administration in 2014.

He serves on multiple advisory boards, including Tech's Nursing Program and the University of Louisiana – Monroe Health Sciences program.
