

To Our Guests

Commencement is a happy and dignified occasion. It is a meaningful time to recognize the graduates and their families, faculty, staff, and students of Louisiana Tech University. Guests and participants are therefore requested to maintain proper decorum throughout the ceremony by avoiding unnecessary movement in the seating area and by withholding applause until designated times as indicated during the program.

Following the awarding of degrees, the audience is requested to stand for the benediction and then to be seated until the recessional is completed.

Commencement Speakers

9 a.m.
Doug Boulware
Founder and CEO of Priority Management Services

Doug Boulware has made a difference for Louisiana Tech University since his undergraduate days as an offensive guard on the Bulldogs' Southland Conference and Independence Bowl championship team in 1977.

He graduated in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in Education and returned to Louisiana Tech to earn a master's degree in Industrial Psychology in 1993. He has used his knowledge, experience, education, and passion for the care of the elderly to become a successful managing partner of Priority Management Group located in Dallas.

Boulware has more than 30 years of experience overseeing and managing facilities in Louisiana and Texas that care for the elderly. The mission of his company is to provide the highest quality care to the more than 3,000 residents it currently services.

Boulware, the 2018 College of Education Distinguished Alumnus, and his wife Sandra have made a major investment, both to the College and to a future Athletics capital project that will pay educational dividends for decades to come. "If it weren't for the football team, I wouldn't have come to Tech," he said. "But if it weren't for the College of Education, I wouldn't have graduated."

12:30 p.m.
Scott Poole
President and COO of RoyOMartin

The President and Chief Operating Officer for RoyOMartin a subsidiary of Martin Sustainable Resources LLC in Alexandria, Scott Poole graduated from Louisiana Tech with a BS in Forestry in 1986 and soon joined the Martin Companies. He later earned his MBA from LSU in Baton Rouge.

With more than 1,200 employees, the Martin Companies own or control over half a million acres of forest land within the State of Louisiana and own and operate the three largest plywood and oriented strand board manufacturing facilities in North America. Poole's current responsibilities include the management of all timber, manufacturing, and sales operations within the organization.

A current Advisory Board Member for Tech's School of Forestry, Poole also serves on the board of the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry. He is a past board member of the Louisiana Forestry Association, past Chairman of the Louisiana Forestry Commission and the Louisiana Forest Products Society, and past Chair of the Central Louisiana Manufacturers Council.

Poole is married to the former Heather Spillers of Vidalia, who earned both her BA and MBA degrees from LSU and later earned her EdD in Education Leadership from Tech. She is currently Executive Vice Chancellor of Central Louisiana Technical Community College in Alexandria. The couple call Pineville home and enjoy spending time in Louisiana's outdoors with their four children.

4 p.m.

General Anthony J. Cotton

Commander of Air Force Global Strike Command at Barksdale Air Force Base

Gen. Anthony J. Cotton is Commander, Air Force Global Strike Command (AFGSC) and Commander, Air Forces Strategic–Air, U.S. Strategic Command, Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana. AFGSC provides strategic deterrence, global strike capability, and combat support to U.S. Strategic Command and other geographic combatant commands.

The command is comprised of more than 33,700 professionals operating at two numbered air forces; 11 active duty, Air National Guard, and Air Force Reserve wings; and the Joint Global Strike Operations Center. Weapons systems assigned to AFGSC include all U.S. Air Force Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles and bomber aircraft, UH-1N helicopters, E-4B National Airborne Operations Center aircraft, and the U.S. Air Force NC3 weapons system.

Cotton entered the Air Force through the ROTC program in 1986 after earning a bachelor's degree in Political Science from North Carolina State. In 1991, he earned his MS in Administration from Central Michigan. He has completed more than a dozen military courses and seminars since.

Cotton has commanded at the squadron, group and wing levels, including his service as Deputy Director of the Secretary and Chief of Staff of the Air Force Executive Action Group, as Senior Military Assistant to the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence, Deputy Director of the National Reconnaissance Office, as well as Commander and President of Air University.

The Tower Medallion

Hall of Distinguished Alumni

Louisiana Tech's Hall of Distinguished Alumni honors those who have achieved greatly in their professions, in community service, and in humanitarian activity while remaining steadfastly loyal to the University. The permanent display of the bronze plaques honoring inductees into the Hall is housed in the Marbury Alumni Center on the campus, and each inductee receives the coveted Tower Medallion. Symbolic of this honor, the Tower Medallion is the highest honor an alumnus of Louisiana Tech University can receive.

4 p.m.

Nicholas K. Akins

Chairman, President, and CEO of American Electric Power

Nick Akins is Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of American Electric Power.

A native of Louisiana, Akins received his bachelor's degree in 1982 and a master's degree in 1986 in Electrical Engineering from Tech. His additional training includes executive management programs at LSU, the University of Idaho, and the Reactor Technology Course for Utility Executives at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Akins and the AEP Foundation have long been supporters of the University. The Foundation graciously presented Tech with a check for the Integrated Engineering and Science Building long before it became a reality. The University also received a generous gift from Akins, president of the Foundation, in 2017 to support the then-new Academic Success Center, which includes Tech's cyber training center, located in the National Cyber Research Park in Bossier City.

Under his leadership, AEP continues to invest in modernization and security of the electric grid, resource diversification, and technology and innovation to enable the transition to a clean energy future while preserving universal access to the grid.

Akins led a cultural transformation to engage AEP employees in customer-focused innovation, enhance diversity and inclusiveness, and build workforce agility for a digital future. Through strategic partnerships and collaboration with customers, Akins has positioned AEP to redefine the future of energy and embrace the transformation sweeping the industry.
